

3 German Pinots

Villa Wolf Pinot Gris 2018

Price: $18.99

A fresh, full-bodied Pinot Gris from Germany's historic Rhine River valley, where this grape was first produced as a single-varietal wine. 12.5% alc.

Wittmann 100 Hills Pinot Blanc 2017 WE88

Price: $19.99

Elegant, with fine aromas of ripe fruit, basil and mint. Creamy and fresh with vibrant acidity and a fine minerality. Invigorating freshness of ripe fruits and nuts. An everyday wine; pairs well with all foods. 12% alc.

Maximin Grunhaus Pinot Blanc 2017 WE90 JS90

Price: $34.99

While delicate in body and alcohol, this elegant, dry Pinot Blanc offers a supple silken texture and crisply concentrated lemon and yellow-apple flavors. It's a refreshing easy-drinking wine with hints of caramel and smoked nut that linger on the finish. Enjoy now–2022. 12.5% alc.

Schmitt Sohne RELAX PINOT NOIR 2016

Price: $11.99

Relax Pinot Noir is a charming, medium-bodied wine that has a delightful fruitiness with balanced acidity and low tannins. Pinot Noir grapes thrive on the longer maturation period provided by the cool climate of the Pfalz, Germany's second largest wine region. 12% alc.

A Christmann Pfalz Spätburgunder 2013

Price: $28.99

The grapes for the Pfalz Spätburgunder are grown in vineyards around Gimmeldingen. The grapes are picked on the perfect degree of ripeness, destemmed and fermented on the skins followed by one year of storage in barriques.. 12.5% alc.

DAILY AUGUST TROCKEN PINOT NOIR 2016

Price: $31.99

The Daily August Pinot Noir opens with a subtle scent of black cherry and blueberry, paired with the delicious aroma of cassis and red pepper. In the mouth it presents itself as fresh and fruity with tension on the palate and fine length. It is an elegant expression of Rheingau Pinot Noir. 13.5% alc.

Koehler-Ruprecht Kabinett Trocken 2017 Pinot Noir

Price: $34.99

The wine is pale, succulent and nervy with terrific cran/cherry fruit, fresh soil notes and very little oak in evidence. 13% alc.
