

Wines of Southwest France

2018 Chateau Belingard Bergerac Blanc Price: $12.99

The elegant style of this wine mirrors the more expensive wines from the nearby Graves area of Bordeaux. Citrus and grapefruit flavors make this a nice choice as an aperitif or with salads and seafood. 13% alc.

2016 Chateau Belingard Bergerac Rouge Price: $11.99

A delicious Cabernet and Merlot blend from a region just outside of Bordeaux. Wine lovers in the know have sought out the wines of Bergerac for their great value. 13.5% alc.

2018 Pigmentum Malbec Rose' Price: $12.99

This lovely, fresh Rose made from 100% Malbec is from the Cahors region. It has aromas and flavors of fresh strawberries & red cherries. It is both dry and easy to drink. 12% alc.

2018 Atrium Malbec Cahors Price: $12.99

This excellent value wine has a soft and lush mouthfeel with intense dark fruit that fills the palate. Ripe cherries and plum with just a hint of tobacco spice add additional complexity. 13% alc.

2015 Antisto Malbec Cahors Price: $17.99

This Malbec from Cahors has beautiful dark fruit aromas and flavors of plum and black raspberry. It is rich, complex and refined with a very elegant structure. The finish is long, but very smooth. 14% alc.

2015 Chateau De Mercues Cahors WE92 Price: $24.99

A firmly extracted wine, this is still all about tannins. Power comes from the richly tannic structure, black fruits that are slowly developing and density. The juiciness of the fruit shows at the end along with the acidity, both promising a good future. 13.5% alc.

2016 Domaine Du Moulie Madiran Price: $14.99

This big, brawny Madiran shows the flavors and intensity of the Tannat grape. It has blackberry and black cherry fruit aromas, with floral hints. This is a big, intense highly-extracted wine, with both firm tannins and ripe fruit that practically explodes in the mouth. 13.5% alc.
